

A Horse Story by Lorilee

The horse eats the green grass that is in his pen. He walked past some flowers and looked at them, and sniffed them.

There was a very colourful sunset. The horse kept eating the grass around him. There were pretty colours of sunset that were blue, yellow, pink, and purple. I would like a horse like him. He is cute. I am going to ask Daddy to get a horse for me so I can ride him.